Performance

This section of the SRMT is intended for both the supplier and the purchasing personnel to review vital operational data and performance measures.

Business Summary

The business summary lists key information of the supplier, such as total invoices paid, total warranty paid, late deliveries and lead time.

Process Efficiency Measurement

Provide activity counts associated with re-transmitting or changing a transaction. Each error and re-transmission has associated failure cost.

Scorecard

Scorecard - Stock Items

This program was initiated to review and monitor performance of key suppliers for stock items. Key suppliers are selected by purchasing managers based on annual purchased amount and also significance to operation. This program is not only designed for purchasing managers to measure and monitor supplier's performance, but also for suppliers to view their performance statistics and communicate their feedback to the purchasing managers. NOTE: This scorecard is not capturing services, leases and rolling stock purchases.

Critical Suppliers Performance Summary

Summary of U.P.'s critical suppliers performance for stock items. Critical suppliers are selected by purchasing managers based on annual purchased amount and also significance to operation.

Order to Dock Report

View Order to Dock time for a vendor with item level detail.

On-Time Delivery Performance

View On-Time Delivery Performance for vendors with item level detail.
