Requests will be processed when full payment is received. Invoices will only be issued with advance approval. Union Pacific may refuse the above request in its sole discretion. However, should Union Pacific accept the request, in consideration of the payment of the image and use fees noted above, Union Pacific grants you authorization to reproduce from the Union Pacific Historical Collection, the image(s) described above for the ONE-TIME use described above. This authorization to reproduce the image(s) described above in no way transfers either copyright or property right. All publication or other public use of materials from the collection must be credited to: "Union Pacific Railroad Museum." If the use is a digital reproduction, user agrees to limit any digital use of the image(s) to 72 dots per inch or 150 pixels in any dimension, or to protect the digital image(s) in a manner that prevents replication in any useable form. If the use is for broadcast, "one time use" includes unlimited broadcast in one language for a period of five years; video rights, additional languages and additional years of use must be regulated separately.

Reproductions of materials from the Collections must not be used to assert or imply that Union Pacific endorses any commercial product or enterprise, or concurs with the opinions expressed in or confirms the accuracy of any text used with these photos or documents. Union Pacific Museum warrants that it has the right to grant use of the materials in its collection. Union Pacific reserves the right to request one copy of any publication in which reproductions are used.

The Union Pacific Railroad Museum does not claim that all images in the collection are subject to copyright protection. To the extent the image described above is subject to copyright protection, a ONE TIME ONLY USE license is granted, whether for private use, publication, display or broadcast, and any reproduction or subsequent use of Union Pacific images is prohibited without the express written consent of the Union Pacific Railroad Museum.

I have read the foregoing, and I agree to abide by this Agreement. I tender the above fees in consideration of Union Pacific's authorization to access and reproduce the image(s) described above for the use described above.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD MUSEUM IMAGE REPRODUCTION FEES

If you need images other than the ones shown on our Web page, please contact the Museum at 402-501-3841 for additional assistance. The Union Pacific collection includes more than 500,000 images.

If you require images that are not shown on our website, the research fee is $75 per hour, billable in half hour increments. A deposit of $50 is required prior to beginning photo research. Photo searches usually produce 5 to 10 images per half hour of research. You will be billed for research WHETHER OR NOT we find a photo that meets your requirements; however, we will inform you in advance whether a search is likely to be productive.

Production Fees:

Digital Reproductions – standard is 8X10 @ 300 d.p.i

Call for prices for larger scans or higher resolution. Digital reproductions are only available with paid use fee.

Use Fees:

Commercial	call for prices

Non commercial use of motion picture footage is billed at $20 per second.

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17 US Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials. Under certain conditions specified in the law libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or other reproduction is not to be used "for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for or later uses a photocopy or other reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use" that user may be liable for copyright infringement. The Union Pacific Railroad Museum reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if in its judgment fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
