

Santa Teresa Intermodal Ramp

Rail facility adding jobs and strength to the state economy.

Union Pacific's Santa Teresa facility provides customers a freight transportation advantage as they compete in the domestic and global marketplaces. At the same time, it positions the southwestern U.S. as a strategic goods movement focal point.

Located on America's critical corridor between El Paso, Texas and Los Angeles, and strategically positioned near the Mexican border.

$400
MILLION
UNION PACIFIC
INVESTMENT

BIOMETRIC TECHNOLOGY

with automated gate processing system averages between one and two minutes versus a four to six minute national average for a manual gate system.

225,000
ANNUAL LIFT CAPACITY

3,000
JOBS DURING CONSTRUCTION
300-600
PERMANENT JOBS

2,200 ACRES

(11.5 MILES LONG, 1 MILE WIDE)

218,000 TONS OF CONCRETE

100 MILES OF RAIL

136,000 TIES

BUILDING AMERICA®