Tips for Scholarship Application Preparation

- Read and follow all guidelines. Many applications are disqualified each year because applicants omit a key step in the guidelines or ignore instructions. All applications must be typed. If you are unsure about any part of the application or whether you are qualified to apply, please email Phylicia Haywood at pnhaywood@up.com and Khayla Graves at krgraves@up.com.
- Thoroughly proofread all of your work. Check to be sure that sentences are complete, clear, and grammatically correct. Applications should not be unclear or contain numerous mistakes distracting the reviewer from focusing on the content. This reflects poorly on the applicant's ability to produce a high quality product.
- Have someone else read the completed essay. An objective reader can often identify areas that need more explanation and may find errors that the applicant has overlooked.
- Be concise. Reviewers must read dozens of applications. Applications that are clear and concise are more compelling.
- Encourage the person writing your Letter of Recommendation to type his or her letter and sign it and include the cover page signed.
- Carefully review the application checklist. Remember to complete any items that were overlooked in the preparation of the application package.
